

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

62.41

Catalog of

Rarities for 1941

WOLCOTTS LIMITED

4901 Clinton Road

JACKSON, MICHIGAN

AETHIONEMA coridifolium (Pulchellum)—One of the best. Pale rose flower heads on 4" stems.....	$.50
ALLIUM glaucum—Very attractive in late summer with balls of pink flowers above curly grey-green leaves. 9".....	.75
ALLIUM Kansuense—Bells of Oxford-blue nodding from 6" stems50
ALLIUM pulchellum—Lovely violet-purple flowers on stems 9" high.....	.75
ANDROSACE strigillosa—Very new and very choice. Lovely silky rosettes with heads of pink blossoms on stems of 6"	1.50
ANEMONE baldensis—A lovely high alpine. Finely cut foliage and white, star-shaped blossoms. 6".....	.75
AQUILEGIA eclarata—From Japan. The spurless rock Columbine of infinite charm. Fragile stems carry delicate flowers of chocolate maroon.....	.75
AQUILEGIA Jonesii—In the Fall, if nothing happens to them
AQUILEGIA saximontana—The smallest of all the Columbines. Blue and white blossoms on 3" stems.....	.60
AQUILEGIA SCOPULORUM—Just a few of these very choice and beautiful plants. Glauous blue foliage, with pale blue and creamy white, long-spurred blossoms on 5" stems....	1.50
ARABIS blepharophylla—New variety and positively non-ramping. Vivid rose-pink flowers on 4" stems. Exceedingly good50
ARABIS Breweri—Another dainty species from the high Mountains. Slender, 5" stems bearing carmine-red flowers. Tufted foliage of shining, deep green.....	.75
ARENARIA purpurascens—Mats of glossy foliage covered with rosy-lilac blossoms. 3".....	.35
ASPERULA cyananchica—Frail, trailing stems with clusters of lovely pink trumpets. Sun and good drainage. 3".....	.35
CALAMINTHA alpina—Forms mats of deep green foliage covered with violet blossoms. Fragrant. Fine for carpeting35
CAMPANULA anchusaeflora—A very recent introduction from the Grecian Mountains. Large, downy leaves, handsomely cut. The flower stem is erect with handsome blue blossoms, opening almost flat.....	1.25
CAMPANULA BETULAEFOLIA—The outstanding novelty of 1937, receiving an unanimous Award of Merit at the Chelsea Show. The buds are deep pink and open to large, clear, lighter pink bells, 1¼ inches long and one inch wide. Very hardy. Glossy green foliage and fine for sunny spot in Rock Garden.....	1.50
CAMPANULA calaminthifolia—Attractive newcomer. Tufts of small leaves and prostrate, radiating stems clothed with white flowers, flushed pink. Needs perfect drainage.....	.75

CAMPANULA Celsii—Lovely new variety from the Balkans. Smothered with large, blue blossoms on prostrate stems..	1.50
CAMPANULA choztatowskyi—Another newcomer and a lovely member of this large family. Tufts of small, ivy-shaped leaves. Slender stems bearing numerous, erect bells of lovely blue. 6".....	1.25
CAMPANULA lariaefolia Bernice—A novelty of recent introduction, very desirable for the Border. Bears double, royal blue flowers. 2 ft.....	.75
CAMPANULA Kamtschavelli—A very new species from the Russian Caucasus. Forms a cluster of rosettes of greyish leaves with flower stems about twelve inches in length, more or less procumbent, bearing long, tubular flowers the full length, deep lavender in color.....	1.00
CAMPANULA Mirandi Bellardii—Lovely silver-blue bells on 2" stems.....	.50
CAMPANULA nitida alba.—Compact tufts of leaves, leathery and scalloped. Large, round white blossoms on 8" stems	.50
CAMPANULA petrophila—Meaning "Rock Loving"—One of the best of the new Campanulas. Neat growth, loving a rock crevice and perfectly hardy. Flowers soft powder blue with a fringe of soft white hairs at the edges of the petals. Flowers 2" across on stems 2" high.....	2.00
CAMPANULA Poscharkyana—Fine variety for Rock Garden. Good grower with flowers from May to December. Lavender blue bells an inch across.....	.35
CAMPANULA Reiseri—Close relative of C. Andrewsii with a profusion of powder blue flowers on 9" stems. Rare.....	.75
CAMPANULA Raineri—TRUE VARIETY—This is often listed but the true variety is seldom seen. Very rare and very beautiful. Tufts of greyish foliage covered with huge, china blue saucers on 2" stems.....	1.00
CAMPANULA recurva—Very attractive plant with flowers as large as a Canterbury Bell of silvery midnight blue on 10" stems.....	.50
CAMPANULA Saxifraga—Very choice and awarded Medal in 1934. Huge purple bells on 3" stems.....	1.00
CAMPANULA speciosa—Like a Canterbury Bell reduced to 6" or 8". Very showy and good.....	.50
CAMPANULA Stansfieldii—Not new but very choice. Neat crinkled foliage and lovely trumpet shaped flowers of deep violet. 6".....	.75
CAMPANULA turbinata Pam—A new variety of turbinata of amazing floriferousness. Makes a cushion of violet blue. 4"75
CAMPANULA Waldsteiniana—We are happy to again have this lovely Hungarian rock plant. Makes a tuft of shiny leaves bearing lovely deep purple starry cups on 2" stems	.75
CORYDALIS thalictrifolia—Exceedingly rare variety from China. Leaves take on a lovely reddish tinge and is covered with spires of yellow blossoms all summer.....	1.00

CYANANTHUS integer—One of the best of the Cyananthus and not too difficult. Neat habit and a joy in Fall when covered with amethyst-blue flowers. 2".....	1.00
COTONEASTER microphylla cochleata —A fine variety for Rock Garden. Prostrate growth and very bright berries and foliage	1.25
COTONEASTER salicifolia floccosa —A trailing shrub with very attractive foliage and a profusion of orange berries in Fall.....	1.25
DIELYTRA spectabilis —An old favorite for the Garden. An extra fine strain with very large blossoms.....	$0.35 and .50
DIERAMA pulcherrima rosea —(Fairies Fishing Rods)—Grass-like leaves and swaying bells of rosy-purple. A marvel of grace. 4'50
DRACOCEPHALUM nutans —Nice for Border or Rock Garden. Dense spikes of purple, hooded flowers. 1 ft.....	.35
DRACOCEPHALUM Ruyschianum —Another fine variety with dark violet blossoms. 9".....	.35
ECHINOPS microcephalum —Low bushes covered with deep blue globes. Fine color. 18".....	.50
ERITRICHIMUM strictum —A treasure from Kashmir with tufts of silvery leaves and sprays of Forget-me-not blossoms over a long period. Perfectly hardy and not difficult..	.75
EUPHORBIA spinosa —Rare, spiny variety of Spurge with handsome foliage. Very desirable.....	1.00
EUPHORBIA Wulfeni —Tropical looking, attractive bushes with glaucous foliage and large heads of yellow flowers. 2 ft.....	.75
FUNKIA Sieboldiana —Glaucous foliage and cream colored flowers tinged blush. For shady spots. 18".....	.50
GAILLARDIA Burgandy —Fine, deep burgandy-red self. In bloom all summer. Extra good.....	.35
GENTIANA Kesselringi —From the high mountains of Turkestan and closely allied to G. decumbens . Forms broad-leaved rosettes with 8" stems ending in a cluster of pale blue blossoms lined with white.....	.75
GENTIANA prolata —Native of Sikkim and very choice. Rosettes of slender leaves and cups of deep blue on short stems75
GENTIANA verna —One of the gems of the family. Tufted growth with flower stems about four inches high, bearing solitary blossoms of beautiful blue.....	1.25
GERANIUM Endressi —A. T. Johnson's Variety—A lovely thing, more dwarf than type, with beautiful silver-pink flowers over a long period. 6".....	1.00
GERANIUM Farreri —Choice and lovely alpine. Large, apple-blossom flowers with striking black anthers. Sun. 4"....	.75
GERANIUM Wallichianum Buxton Blue —From the Himalayas. Trailing habit with large, clear blue salvers. Always scarce	1.00

GEUM montanum—One of the best for the Rock Garden. Handsome deep green foliage and large, golden blossoms all summer. 4".....	.50
LIATRIS scariosa alba—Very handsome pure white Gay-feather. Tall and stately, giving a stunning effect to the garden. 4 ft.....	.75
MECONOPSIS cambrica—The Welsh Poppy—Large, single blossoms of pure yellow, filled with silky stamens. Sun or shade. 12".....	.35
MECONOPSIS cambrica fl. pl.—The lovely orange variety that is fully double and so satisfactory. Scarce.....	.75
ONOSMA albo-roseum—A rare sub-shrub with heavy grey leaves in tufts. Large white flowers fading to pink. 8" stems75
PHYTEUMA lobelioides—A choice alpine with grey foliage and slender spikes carrying hundreds of pure lavender-mauve flowers. 12".....	1.00
PHYTEUMA orbiculare—slender stems terminating in large balls of purple blue. 9".....	.75
PHYTEUMA Sibthorpiana—Steel grey leaves with garlands of lavender blossoms. 12".....	1.00
PHYSARIA didymocarpa—A fine new-comer with rosettes of spoon-shaped silver leaves and a ring of heads of silvery yellow flowers. Sun.....	.75
POTENTILLA fragiformis—Silvery leaves and huge golden flowers in Spring. 6".....	.50
POTENTILLA Nevadensis—Small evergreen tufts and bright yellow blossoms. 4".....	.50
PRIMULA anisodora—Japonica type. Flowers rich maroon-crimson with yellow zone. Scented, as the name implies. 18"75
PRIMULA aurantiaca—A very rare and beautiful dwarf growing Primula belonging to the Candelabra section. Flowers rich orange on 18" stems.....	1.25
PRIMULA Burmanica "Golden King"—Another very choice new variety of Candelabra type. Flowers lovely yellow on 2 ft. stems.....	1.25
PRIMULA capitellata—A choice and little known variety belonging to the Farinosa group, only without farina. Heads of lavender pink blossoms on 4" stems. Native of Kuh-i-Jupar and neighboring ranges in Persia.....	1.00
PRIMULA glaucescens—(Calycina)—Glossy, hard leaves making a compact rosette. Heads of rosy purple flowers. 4" ..	1.00
PRIMULA lichiangensis—Fine variety belonging to the cortusoides section. Umbels of lilac flowers. Demands good drainage and sun.....	.75
PRIMULA muscarioides—A very rare species from Yunnan. Spikes of purple-blue flowers on stems 8 to 9 inches high..	1.25

PRIMULA vittata—A lovely variety with long, narrow glaucous leaves in rosettes. Stems about 15" high with beautiful rose-purple flowers in whorls.....	1.00
PRIMULA Wardii—Very choice. Light mauve flowers. Closely allied to P. involucrata and asking for same treatment....	.75
PRIMULA Wulfeniana—Glossy leaves of tufted habit. Large, rosy blossoms on very short stems. 3".....	1.00
RANUNCULUS gramineus—Narrow, blue-grey leaves. Large, citron-yellow buttercups. 9".....	.75
RANUNCULUS millefoliatus—Very attractive finely cut foliage. Large, golden cups on 3" stems. Rare and lovely....	1.00
RYDBERGIA grandiflora—Enormous Gaillardia-like flowers on 6" stems. New and very rare.....	1.00
SEDUM middendorffianum diffusum—A distinguished Sedum with bronzy foliage turning to deep red in the Fall. Large heads of yellow blossoms on 3" stems.....	.50
SEMPERVIVUM giganteum—TRUE—A giant in size and an ornament to any Rock Garden. The rosettes are as large as a dinner plate.....	.50
SPIREA caespitosa—Makes a lovely tuft of grey foliage with short stems and white plumes. Plant in sun in a choice spot in the Rock Garden.....	.75
VERONICA Autumn Glory—Lovely shrubby variety with masses of deep blue flowers. 2 ft.....	1.50
VERONICA Bidwilli—True Variety—Tiny mounds of glossy, round leaves. Snow-white flowers on slender stems. 3"....	1.25
VERONICA decumbens—Low shrub with dark stems and white flowers. 6".....	1.25
VERONICA Hookeri—Another gem for the Rock Garden. Evergreen shrub with white flowers spotted blue. 6".....	1.25

